MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

RASHMEET KAUR, MPH, OMS II

Rashmeet Kaur received her MPH at Drexel University's Dornsife School of Public Health and is a current Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine candidate at LECOM Bradenton.

Outside of academics, Rashmeet is a poet and artist who uses creative expression to build community and inspire others. She believes in the power of art as a tool for healing and advancing social justice. As a member of the DO-Touch.NET community, she is excited to deepen her understanding of OMT and share its holistic and transformative potential with others.
